Branch Name: Bridgend

Leader Name: Siân Williams

Brief Activity Description:

Mapping

Materials Needed:

- Copies of local OS maps
- Coloured arrows to stick on the map

Step by step guide to the activity:

The aim of this activity is to get the children to find as many different archaeological sites of different periods on the map as possible. Once each site has been located use a different coloured arrow for each site of a different period for example, prehistoric, Romano-British, medieval, industrial. This activity could also be carried out on different types of site using the same method.
