

Young Archaeologists' Club

Young Archaeologists' Club Affiliated Branch application form

This form is for established education providers with their own child protection, health and safety and insurance provision, who would like to affiliate their own young person's archaeology club to YAC.

If you would like to set up a YAC Branch directly administered by the Council for British Archaeology, and covered by our insurance, please contact us at yac@yac-uk.org or 01904 671 417.

Proposed Branch name:

Proposed start date (please allow at least two months):

How should members of the public contact your Branch? (This information will be listed on the YAC website)

Contact name:

Contact telephone number:

Contact email address:

Website (if applicable):

What is the address of your venue?

If different, what address should YAC HQ use when sending you post?

YAC sends regular electronic newsletters to each Branch and has a Branch email network for discussion and sharing information. Please list any email addresses you would like to add to these:

Who will be in your Branch team? (Please include names and roles):

Please provide outline details of your local child protection, health and safety, and insurance provision:

Young Archaeologists' Club

Please tell us why you would like to affiliate your group to the Young Archaeologists' Club:

YAC Branches typically meet once a month. Please provide an outline of your session plans for the first six months:

Do you plan to charge your Branch members, either on an annual or per session basis?

Young Archaeologists' Club

Are there any areas in particular where you feel you need support from the Young Archaeologists' Club?

Please return this form to us by email or post using the details below. We will be in touch to arrange a meeting to discuss your plans. Thank you for your interest in YAC.

yac@yac-uk.org

YAC Branch applications

The Council for British Archaeology

DeGrey House,

St Leonard's Place,

York

YO1 7HE